BEST WAYS TO PREP

Hair

Collaborate with your stylist as early as possible to craft your vision and build a path to get there for the wedding. Regular trims and conditioning treatments will minimize breakage and maximize shine, while color can add depth. Consider extensions or a Halo for volume and length to achieve your dream bridal hairstyle.

Skin

Your Mitchell's make-up artist is also a licensed esthetician! Leverage her knowledge to map out regular facials and an at-home skin care regimen for glowing skin on your wedding day. Use dermaplaning to create a flawless foundation for bridal make-up. Consider waxing, lash extensions, brow tint, buff and tan, and even a back facial for radiant skin at every angle. And above all else, consistency is the key to that wedding-day glow!

Nails

It's never too early to start receiving regular manicures and pedicures. Look good in engagement photos, at your shower, and at the bachelorette party, all while giving your nails time to strengthen, recondition, and grow for the wedding. Consider hot stones for extra relaxation or collagen for moisture. Collaborate with your technician about a full set for length or nail art for that extra element on your wedding day.

Massage

Stress will show up both mentally and physically, and few things are as stressful as a wedding! Schedule massages monthly to stay centered through every stage of planning and include your fiancé for some much-needed downtime together. A body cocoon will help with lymphatic drainage while aromatherapy and hot stones deliver the ultimate in relaxation. Upgrade to CBD Oil or ask for Deep Tissue to release deeply rooted tension before the wedding.
